The 2011 racing season is almost upon us, and with that Matt Billings and his team have been hard at work in their Brockville, Ontario shop preparing for a brand new season. Billings, a 17-year-old Thousand Islands Secondary School student has used his youthful determination and exuberance to solidify his racing program for the new season, attracting new sponsors such as Hansler Smith Limited and Brockville Physiotherapy, and securing existing sponsors like Carquest, that has ramped up their sponsorship campaign with team for a season that Billings hopes to be filled with checkered flags, and championship caliber consistency.

Plans are still in the air as to where Billings will race each week, with the exception of his home track, Brockville Ontario Speedway on Saturday nights. Billings has other possibilities, and will make that announcement once the season gets closer.

“I am really excited for the new season. Our sponsors are all returning for a new year, and we have picked up some additional sponsors as well. We had a good year last year, and I hope we can improve on that this year. I want to win more races, and battle for the championship at each track that we race at, and then on down the road, I really want to do well at Syracuse during Super DIRT Week in October”, says Billings.

Billings Motorsports would like to thank all of the sponsors for their continued support. Billings Automotive, Carquest, Stealth Racewear, Pastime Motors, Hansler Smith Limited, Enders Racing Engines, Brockville Physiotherapy, Babe Design, Finish Line Web Design, and Enders Racing are an integral part of the team’s success, and we look forward to working with you all in 2011.

“I want to thank all of our returning sponsors for their support, and we welcome Hansler Smith Limited and Brockville Physiotherapy as new sponsors this season. We would also like to thank Carquest for their involvement with our racing program in 2011, and we look forward to representing Carquest this year with our car wrapped in the traditional Carquest colors”. It will be an exciting season, and I look forward to sharing our success with all of you”, Billings adds.
